The premier power pop band from Arizona, taking cues from the Beatles, Wilco and the Knack 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: 90's Pop Details: Arizona's own Naked Chollas first CD "Let's Go!" was released in 1998 and saw the band gain an instant hit with fans of rock and roll injected power pop all over the world. It's jam-packed with hooks, guitar licks, and choruses that can be appreciated by Power Pop and Rock 'n Roll/Alternative fans alike. From the stellar power pop of "Something To Believe In", "Touch" and "Yesterdays Perfume" to songs like "Backseat" and "It Could Happen" that take on a alternative/country-pop feel listeners of "Let's Go!" will not be disappointed no matter what style of music they like. Also included are the songs "Make It Last" and "Summers Gone" that have an edgier pop/rock approach. The track "Come See Me" has been picked up by Mastersource Publishing Company in Los Angeles for soundtrack use and appeared on the syndicated Warner Brothers' sitcom, "Boy Meets World". "Come See Me" was placed on almost 50 different sitcoms and promotional television shows including "Sabrina the Teenage Witch", "Wonderful World of Disney" and almost all ABC's daytime soaps. The song still appears in soundtracks played all over the world. "Summers Gone", has been picked up for future soundtrack use. "Let's Go!" has become an instant classic to power pop fans all over the world. It is now available for the first time from CD Baby.
