Clinging to the thought of the child growing inside her, Leah Davis slowly rebuilt her life after her husband Hunter's death--until the day he showed up on her doorstep, alone, confused and very much alive. But instead of flinging herself into his arms and weeping tears of joy, she found herself on the run with a husband who didn't remember their marriage...or why people were shooting at him. Leah vowed to protect their baby at any cost, even if it meant withholding the truth about her pregnancy from the one man who had a right to know. But she wouldn't turn her back on the dangerously handsome man who'd revived her buried passion. They had to uncover the secrets surrounding Hunter's "murder" before the killer could strike again. But if Hunter's memory returned, could he forgive Leah for her secrets?
