People are shocked when they first find out Chase Tyler is only 20 years old. His voice carries the maturity of artists 10 years ahead of his time. His style and his good looks is the main attraction until he starts singing. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Chase Tyler was born and raised in Denham Springs, Louisiana. Chase began singing publicly at the age of 7 at open mike nights with his mother, and on stage with his father's band. During his various performances, the directors of The American Kids, Inc., (americankids.com) met him and invited him to join their Little League of Entertainers group. The group traveled Louisiana/Texas/Mississippi on weekends performing at fairs; festivals; nursing homes; retirement centers, etc. When Chase wasn't performing with the AK's, he sang lead vocals for the Backwater Band for private functions, and on several occasions, hosted his own shows at local venues. The AK's National Qualifier's Competition brought Chase to Branson, Missouri for the National talent Competition. After catching Chase's performance at the competition, producers of the Raising American Show asked him to return to Branson permanently to join the cast of the Raising America Show. At age 17, Chase packed his bags and moved to Branson, thus beginning his on-stage professional music career. He performed in Branson for two years in The Raising American Show at the Majestic Theatre; The Magnificent Seven Show and The Showcase Jubilee at The White House Theatre. In 2005, Chase moved back home to Louisiana to complete his full-length CD and form his own band. Chase is actively pursuing a record deal and makes frequent trips to Nashville and plans to relocate there soon. chasetyler.org
