Traditional country gospel with nods to Johnny Cash, and Ray Price. Heartfelt country praise. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Western Details: David is accompanied on this album by such well-known musicians as John David, Doug Livingston and Candy Girard. David Shook's earlier experiences include singing on the country music show Rocky Mountain Jamboree in Denver at age 19. Over the years David has appeared with many vocalists, including the late Jimmie Davis, the former governor of Louisiana and Mark Lowry who is now with the Bill Gaither vocal Band. Homecoming Country is about coming home to traditional American values love of God, family, and country. In this CD album, David had a part in writing all of the songs. Just about all of the country instruments are used. Guitar, banjo, mandolin, fiddle, keyboard, bass, dobro, harmonica. This is genuine down home country! "David Shook presents songs that are heartfelt, people oriented, and focused on the Lord. His musical compositions reflect his love for the Savior in a 'Country' style that is a refreshing change from today's contemporary music scene." -Tim Bryant, Bluegrass Brethren. "Pastor David Shook has a way of making the truths of God so accessible through his gift of song." Don Davis, Christian Music Artist, Virginia "I have known Pastor David Shook for several years and have always admired and appreciated his ministry. He has a pure heart toward God and his music is representative of that fact. David has been gifted of God as a preacher of the Word and also as a musician. The songs that he writes and sings are not only good musically, but minister through the message as the Psalms of another David -'a man after God's own heart.'" Roger Bankson, Christian Music Artist, Florida "David Shook has a passion to see people have a full and meaningful life through Jesus Christ." Doyle Braden, Director of Missions, Orange County, California. This album includes songs from the personal experience of David Shook. "Homecoming Country," a tribute to his parents, "We'll See Our Love Ones Again," written in memory of David's son, Robert who died from Cystic Fibrosis.
