Shake Magazine was there distributing their magazines they happened to give Denise a wonderful review about her CD "LIVE IN ONE TAKE" Here's what they wrote: "One might think there is a new trend for actual musical artists to come back to the forefront of the field. Is it possible? Can we get people like Denise Vasquez to replace the dancing MTV product queens? That would be a step in the right direction. This album is only available on CDBABY It is a collection of no frills one take live recordings that portray Vasquez in a sultry and adventuresome persona that makes you want to come back for more. She going places, that's for sure. Denise recently played the legendary CAVERN CLUB in Liverpool, England where the Beatles began. With her last name one might expect Denise to perform percussive or salsa or other variations on Hispanic musical forms but she's more of a folk and inventive singer-songwriter stylist. The group is simple with acoustic guitar, flute and congas. She has a good message. In one lyric, "We are all crayons in the box, different colors but all made the same, for one purpose, to color the picture..."Peace joy back at you, Denise."-Jess Marich, SHAKE MAGAZINE 12/04 Denise has been receiving a great deal of press lately...Denise was just notified that she's being listed on MUSIC CONNECTION MAGAZINE HOT 100 UNSIGNED ARTIST LIST 2004...that's three years in a row! Music Connection Magazine recently mentioned Denise in their props column, here's what they wrote: "MC Showcase artist Denise Vasquez got to live out her dream. Influenced (as many artists are) by the Beatles, Vasquez recently traveled to Liverpool to see where the Fab Four grew up and played. She not only saw everything she wanted, she also got the opportunity to play the world famous CAVERN CLUB where the Beatles performed 294 times. Vasquez reports, "The place was packed, and the MC kept saying 'Los Angeles singer/songwriter Denise Vasquez is here folks, and she already has a fan base in Liverpool.' I was only scheduled to perform for a half an hour, but the crowd got so into my set they let me go on for over an hour." Pints of ale were bought while autograph seekers surrounded her. Vasquez says, "It was absolutely incredible, I can't even put it into words. I can only say I am living my dreams!" -Bernard Baur, MUSIC CONNECTION MAGAZINE 11/04 Denise initially booked performed in Room 1 (The Beatles Stage) and was invited back to perform at the CAVERN CLUB in Room two where she opened for the winner of the Battle Of The Bands in Liverpool "BOA". Denise also received a great review in THE BELTANE PAPERS, Here's what they wrote about "LIVE IN ONE TAKE": "One of the best things about being a reviewer is when you are given the gift of coming across a total unknown whose fledging work is magnificent. Hearing Denise Vasquez's "LIVE IN ONE TAKE" was just such an experience. She's been described as a cross between Janis Joplin and Jewel, and the stage is her natural habitat. With lyrics that mix relationship based motives and burning social lyrics, her voice conveys the same strong conviction. In the middle of her open conversational language, there's also a sense of magic enhanced by the flute. The sound is pretty much timeless, with some echoes of the sixties' freedom. Vasquez carries the pure scent of an independent artist and it's easy to believe her when she says "My music is all that I am". -Lisa Mc Sherry, THE BELTANE PAPERS 6/04 July: Denise Vasquez once again receives an ASCAP PLUS AWARD for 2004/2005! Denise is proud to announce that she earned a nomination for the LA MUSIC AWARDS in the category of INDEPENDENT FEMALE VOCALIST OF THE YEAR! Now we have to wait until November to find out if she wins!!! So many exciting things are happening right now! On April 13th, 2004 Music Connection Magazine invited me to open the night for their debut showcase series! Tony Ferguson from Interscope Producer Dito Godwin (No Doubt Many more) showed up just to see me! Music Connection Magazine recently reviewed my show with a full band at The Roxy in Los Angeles. Here's what they wrote: Material: "While her overall sound could land in an alternative country market, Denise Vasquez isn't afraid to dip into folk-rock and even a little bit of reggae. Led by her songwriting talents, Vasquez shows considerable range by delivering soothing blues based numbers one minute and meditating on spacey, spoken word intros the next. Lyrically focused on reaping benefits from the here and now, Vasquez's sincerity, along with her well written melodic hooks, make any preaching a pleasant pill to swallow. Musicianship: "Cohesive and confident, this five piece moves through the set with ease. Rio and Wolf lay down a sturdy backbone that plays in the background, though they display well honed skills when the act kicks into fifth gear. Complemented by the tasteful backup of Mora, Vasquez moves from gentle, honey-dripped vocals to gritty bar room swagger-both with assuring command. Sharing the spotlight is Blacke's exceptional fretwork, whose warm tones add glossy texture to every song. Performance: Vasquez kicked off with two silky, mid tempo tunes before easing into the shining "Pipe Dream", which easily wrapped up her approach to countrified rock. From there, the quintet rang in the first surprise of the evening with an experimental folk tribute to George Harrison, "Crayons". And, with another trick up their sleeve, they broke into a reggae cover of the Cranberries "Zombie", which worked remarkably well. Ending on a bombastic note, Vasquez's unassuming vibe played well with her eclecticism." Summary: "Blending elements of rock, country and a myriad of other spicings, Denise Vasquez's music possesses an earthy, soothing quality that is engaging..." -Albert Vega, MUSIC CONNECTION MAGAZINE (3/29-4/11/04)

Thanks to CDBABY, Denise Vasquez received a wonderful review in Sweden on Jan. 23rd! Here is the English translation: Three stars. "WITH STRONG CONVICTION. Denise has been described as a cross between Janis Joplin and Jewel. The stage is the natural place for Denise Vasquez. An awarded singer/songwriter from LA, both her albums are mainly recorded live and filled with a raw naked sound. It's straight through acoustic Folk-Rock, where Denise accompanies herself on guitar. At the same time, there is a mission in her songs. The debut CD "FIGHTING DARKNESS" is focused on Sept. 11th 2001 and it's aftermath. Other motives come in on the follow up album "LIVE IN ONE TAKE". It has a mix between relations based motives and more burning (social) lyrics. The voice betrays the same strong conviction. In the middle of her open conversational language there's also a sense of magic, enhanced by (suggestive) flute. The sound is pretty much timeless, with some echoes of the 60:ies free psychedelic. Vasquez carries a pure scent of Independent and you do believe in her words "My music is all that I am".

There is Denise Vasquez, a transplant to LA who was a hit in NYC and the Caribbean, and she's winning recognition here...will knock your socks off."-Larry Wines, "TIED TO THE TRACKS" FOLKWORKS, Jan. 2004 "When Denise Vasquez picks up her guitar, the room grows quiet with admiration before her crystal clear voice and catchy melodies. If you're lucky enough to catch her show, you'll never forget it, as the tunes take hold and keep you company for days to come." -B.Brigitte, President, Bionic Sisters Productions, Jan. 2004 DENISE VASQUEZ is a passionate singer/songwriter who performs quite extensively in the Los Angeles area. This CD shares a spirit that is deep, pure and real, combining a beautiful voice, meaningful lyrics and a wonderful fusion of folk, jazz, blues, pop, and world music. "Singer/songwriter Denise Vasquez has been compared to Janis Joplin meets Jewel, but Denise writes and sings from her own soul. Vasquez could trademark the way she accents her high notes with a delicate trill that sounds like it's being produced by a flute than by human vocal chords...her upbeat and optimistic lyrics are delivered on flowing melodies with a unique voice that has undeniable conviction and feeling"-Dani Barnard, MUSIC CONNECTION. "Denise wowed them with her insightful introspective lyrics and vocals that ranged from deep and seductive to sweetly fluttering often in the same line. The picture of feminine charm, she graciously invited us to accompany her on her life journey"-Cyhndi Mora, ALL ACCESS.
