"Thought provoking" Christian songs. Songs you will not hear on Christian radio. 9 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: "SOME THINGS WE'RE NOT SUPPOSE TO KNOW" covers the spectrum in subject material. Some light-hearted and funny. Others very serious and thought provoking. Drew's writing is brilliantly showcased throughout this CD, cleverly insuring that a song's title does not give away any more information than necessary. Thus, most of these songs will sneak up on you making it necessary to replay to thoroughly understand the message. The title song of the album attempts to capture how we felt as a nation following that day. It also attempts to let us know that there are always going to be some things we're not suppose to know. Nearly all the songs Drew has written over the years in both secular and Christian are deep with meaningful lyrics. One can hear how his music is written with a gentle softness to weave through a touching verse. Another song will require a "machine of brass" to propel it to the height it so desires. Be prepared to go to the highs and lows in this musical collection. And strap in..!
