Pop-slash-jazz-slash-musical theater originals sung to arrangements for piano, jazz combo, string quartet, oboe, and guitar. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Chamber Pop, FOLK: Jazzy folk Show all album songs: pictures Songs Details: Gayla's debut album of original songs, pictures, was reviewed by Westword in Denver, CO as Broadway-quality songs delivered by a vocalist with a Broadway-quality voice and a gift for arranging. (Michael Roberts, Feedback, Westword, June 1-7, 1994) Many of the songs on the CD were also part of Gayla's one-woman show, Reflections on Being Single, where her songwriting style was lauded by The Denver Post as a combination of Laura Nyro, James Taylor, and Andrew Lloyd Webber. (Jeff Bradley, The Denver Post, March 22, 1993.) Her original work was also performed regionally in concert from 1991-1993 by the Denver-based jazz group, Choice. Gayla now lives in New York, where she sings professionally and continues to write songs, both pop/jazz and musical theater. Check out her website, GaylaMorgan.com, for other sound clips of her songs and singing.
