Love Songs, EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway Details: "Love Is Blind" is a collection of songs that acts as a musical snapshot, representing, as it does, material written over a period of time in a variety of musical styles. Many of the songs on "Love Is Blind" highlight the long-term collaboration between Mark Frith and Peter Collington. These songs tell powerful stories that truthfully depict, with real insight and humour, the human condition. Mark Frith's work offers a broad range of musical experiences: from his CD's of pure instrumental compositions to the theatrical performances of stage, rock and pop songs; his unique and commanding style showcases his distinctive soulful voice, which always engages and entertains the listener. Mark studied at Dartington and the Royal Academy of Music, London. Whilst compositions for film, TV and radio have been a main feature of Mark's work, the popular song and, in particular, the stage musical have always captured his imagination. Mark's songs produce a sublime marriage between his lyrics, vocal melodies and harmonies; with strong rhythmic counterpoint combining to produce powerful emotions; stories which engage the listener.
