Theres a Black Man In The White House! Barack Obama and all his faithful supporters have won a battle that not long ago seemed impossible! His election to the office of President Of The United States Of America marks an occasion in American History that proves Anything Is Possible! Congratulations, Barack Obama! Were looking for a positive Change! We deserve a Better America! The other two songs on this album I have dedicated to The First Couple are Barack Obama: Someone To Believe In and Michelle: The African Queen! Dont worry, even though this CD is prefaced with a political message, it is filled with songs featuring love and compassion like Lets Spend The Night Together, Head To Toe, Dirty Dancing and One Time More! Additionally, this album features a mini-tribute to the one and only 'Godfather Of Soul', James Brown! In his honor, I have composed the uptempo tunes "Baby Needs A New Pair Of Shoes", "Short Shorts", "I Got Needs" and "Gotta Get Up To Get Down"! Mr. Brown would have been immeasurably thrilled by the crowning of a Black President! Yes, I said 'crowing'! The President Of The United States Of America is "King Of The World"! It is such an honor for a Black Man to have this position! I would like to thank White people for being mature enough to vote for the best 'person' for the job rather than make the mistake of electing another White Man to the post! For the first time in American History, this shows that things are really GETTING BETTER! Other songs on the album are "Dirty Dancing", "That Girl Of Mine", "One Time More" and "When You Read Between The Lines" (A song that I wrote with Reba McEntyre in mind)! My favorite songs from the whole album is "The Christmas Wish", I know you'll like it too! As always, when you purchase an album by Thaddeus Carlton, you are guaranteed to get at least an hour of music! Listen and enjoy!
