Photographer Jenna Swain puts her heart and soul into her work. When Today's Sports, a popular magazine, hires her to capture the essence of the professional rodeo, she sets up a live shoot at a rodeo not far from her San Francisco home. Her camera especially likes the ambitious Luke Campbell, a cowboy whose career is taking off. But Jenna's blond hair and blue eyes have most of the fellas all tongue-tied and passing glances her way. She wishes that she could be a male, for a little while, in order to fit unnoticed into the scene and get the crowning photo that seems to elude her. Could she slip into the rodeo as a man? Dressed in second-hand clothes and cowboy boots, Jenna experiences an entirely different perspective of life as the young cowboy Jamie Frame. But when another cowboy is murdered, Jamie Frame is seen fleeing the scene, and Jenna's masquerade is over - she is arrested for the murder. And Luke, whose feelings for Jenna are heating up as fast as his career, is livid with her for having held back the truth from him. Despite his rage, he believes in Jenna's innocence and becomes her ally. Together, somehow, they must clear her name...Author: Klein, Pamela Publisher: Awe-Struck E-Books, Inc.
