"We live in a busy, noisy culture! It has been my desire for sometime to produce a series of piano-only CDs that help eliminate some of the distractions and allow people the unique opportunity to process their own emotions -- worship, relax, love, search, celebrate, grieve, live and b-r-e-a-t-h-e!... ..Instrumental music (especially piano music!) has a profound affect on our ability to calm ourselves and re-focus on what is truly important in life. For me personally, God and family hold the highest spots on that priority list!" Debbie Fortnum Please do feel free to help us get the word out to Instrumental and New Age Radio Stations in your State / Province! The American Music Therapy Association has listed 8 ways that sound and music can be used in life. . . 1.) To initiate and enhance relationships 4.) To reinforce learning 5.) To provide auditory stimulation/feedback or mask ambient noise 6.) To structure pleasurable and positive interpersonal interactions (makes great background, entertaining music!) 7.) To serve as reinforcement or structure for healthful changes in physiological, emotional, or lifestyle skills.
