

Mp3 Good Company - Rose In The Heather

DOWNLOAD HERE

Celtic songs and tunes with violin, cello, mandolin, flute, cittern, whistle flute, bodhran, and many others. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Good Company is a Celtic band hailing from Californias Northcoast. From rollicking reels and toe-tapping tunes, to Irish airs and ballads, Good Company creates images of Celtic lands, seas and peoples. The four band members perform their original arrangements as singers and multi-instrumentalists on violins, flutes, pennywhistles, mandolin, cello, guitars, recorders, accordions, dumbek and bodhran (Irish hand-held drum). This group brings together Ann Marie Woolley, Sam McNeill, Bob Stockwell and Janet Finney-Krull. Their CDs are available at The Metro and HSU Bookstore in Arcata, and are available on-line. Their first CD Cup of Tea is available at emusic sources such as iTunes amazon.com, and their recently released CD Rose in the Heather is available here at: cdbaby.com/cd/goodcompany Ann Marie Woolley: Cello, guitar, vocals Sam McNeill: Violin, cittern, guitar, 12-string, accordion, vocals Bob Stockwell: Mandolin, violin, guitar, vocals Janet Finney-Krull: Flutes, pennywhistle, recorder, bodhran, dumbek, accordion, vocals For more information please contact: Good Company, PO Box 758, Arcata, CA 95518 (707) 443-6889 Email: woolley@cox Visit us and hear us on-line at: cdbaby.com/cd/goodcompany Quotes from May 12, 2005 Times-Standard: From Sara Watson Arthurs review of new CD "Rose in the Heather" "....you're in for a surprise and a treat." . . . . "Good Company demonstrates versatility with songs of different styles and moods." (Ann Marie is quoted in the article saying), "Our songs tend to attract a diverse audience, from young children to seniors." "No road is too long when you travel with good company." (unknown)

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: