Humble Grumble's "Rockstar" album has been recorded with 12 musicians from the area of Ghent. It's a very orchestral, humoristic and exciting rock recording. 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: Humble Grumble's "Rockstar" was a Theatre-Festival Project in the year 2003 in Belgium. The show described the loneliness of a musician in the society. These songs are completely nuts lyrically, musically a little easier than Humble Grumble's "Dreamwavepatterns". You get a huge orchestral sound on this CD played by at least 12 musicians. I should mention the work of Cindy Barg, American singer living in Ghent, Belgium. Her powerful voice on this album truly enhances the quality of Humble Grumble's music and together with Megan Quill they added a wide range of colours to the sound. The project "Rockstar" was a deciding step in Humble Grumble's career, many Festival Organizations phoned back to the management to book Humble Grumble's "30 Years Kolinda" for the year 2005-2006 because of the success of "Rockstar".
