The songs are performed by Kathryn with a lot of help from friends and family members. The guitar player is her brother-in-law Nathan Guilford from Oklahoma City. The singers include Kathryn's father-in-law Bill Morris of Houston, Texas, her niece Siri Peterson from St. Paul, Minnesota, and her singing partner Elizabeth Thompson from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Last but definitely not least is Faith Hart, Elizabeth's daughter who was six years old at the time of the recording. She masterfully handles all of the speaking parts. The songs were inspired by the experience of being a new mom, and they focus on things that a baby does everyday. New parents will have no problem relating to songs such as I Love Milk, Yes I Do! and Three Wet Wipe Mess. Some of these songs are easy enough for a toddler to sing, and Kathryn hopes that the whole family will join in and sing to the new baby! Singing can help parents, siblings, and babies feel calm and happy. Now that is a dream come true. Here's what one new mom says about Itty Bitty Ditties: Kathryn Kirt's CD, "Itty Bitty Ditties" is absolutely delightful! Each song has a catchy tune and is fun to listen to. Some of the songs are bound to make new mommy's giggle. Julie M. Agro
