Details: Lou currently resides, and was born in Staten Island, New York. Listening and being around music most of his life, Lou decided to take up the piano at the age of 12. Months later he started to write and perform his own music. At the age of 14 he discovered a form a music that was like nothing he had heard before, House Music. Being inspired by such Dj-Producers such as Johnny Vicious, Plasmic Honey, Dj Macguyver, Embargo, Scot Project Etc., Lou started to write and produce his own style of house. Using his home studio, he would do all aspects of music creation, -Production..Engineering..Mastering..Etc...Solo. Lou would bring his finished works to clubs in the NYC and Staten Island Area and play his tracks to the delight of the crowds. This would help to gain a reputation as one of the youngest and brightest House Music producers out there. Lou has also set another goal to achieve..Starting a Record Label. That dream has become a reality in 2009, together with partner, Mikey Puff, they have founded, Valor Recordings. Focusing mainly on commercialized music, Valor will soon branch off into sublabels, support the main genre that is Lou's passion, House Music. At the present age of 26, the future looks bright for Lou and things can only get better as the years go on.
