

Mp3 Mortimer - De Eclectic Mixes

A unique blend of R&B and Soca music. Soca music is Caribbean in origin and tends to have double entendre (double meaning) lyrics. This, mixed with the R&B style of the US, makes for a special concoction. Enjoy "De Eclectic Mixes". 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, WORLD: Island

Details: Inking his name after those who have recorded before is a natural progression for Mortimer. Mortimer is a recognized personality on the Toronto entertainment circuit where he presently resides. This acknowledgement comes from seventeen years of Calypso Spectacular, a radio program he created to tribute old masters and new torches of musical genres emanating from Trinidad Tobago and the Eastern Caribbean. The program can be heard every Sunday from 3 - 6PM on CHRY 105.5FM or on the World Wide Web, yorku.ca/chry. As a child of St. James Woodbrook, Mortimer's formative years were spent in the pulse of Trinidad Tobago culture; and this is his foundation. In 1984, he was the leader of the Blue Flames, the dance support ensemble of the artist then known as Blue Boy. Who could forget that magical moment when Superblue ascended the Savannah stage to perform Fete, accompanied by those outstanding Soca Breakdancers. That sequence was co-choreographed by Mortimer. In Canada, he has persevered in his love for all that is Caribbean arts including theatre, dance, and of course on the airwaves, and has blended that love with a love for the R&B and Hip Hop culture of the US. Many T&T based artist will tell you that on many a Sunday afternoon they would join Mortimer in his studio as a guest host. Artists such as Iwer George, Anslem Douglas, Double D, Rikki Jai and Rupee along with some of the top DJs such as C- Wyllie of 96.1 and Rhythm Nation to name a few, have graced his studio. This allows the artist an imaginative access to adoring fans. Mortimer: A lover of dance and drama; A host of progressive radio; A computer programmer systems analyst; now brings to you his precision and talent in a new CD titled Mortimer De Eclectic Mixes. Enjoy. De Eclectic Mixes is a little humor, real rhythm and truly old fashion double entendre Soca with a modern R&B edge. This is Mortimer's recipe for all his recordings. For information and bookings call here Imagery in Canada at 416-445-8652 or email sylvanp@rogers.com.
