Back from The World China Tour, following their meteoric rise to worldwide prominence on the world's largest internet music subscriber system with more than one million song plays and a dozen Worldwide Number One Hits on internet charts from their first two albums The Front Porch Country Band is back and at it again. Heres their creative explosion of 14 hot new recordings featuring their own brand of Original American Country. You're on a musical odyssey stretching across North America, "...like the thunder of a runaway freight train barrelin' down Main Street at midnight...combined with the freshness of a front porch swing swayin' gently in the cool country breeze after a soft summer rain." Every track commands close attention. "It's been a labor of love," says the band, "about places we've been, or still want to get to. All performed with their trademark energy and emotion, showcasing their soaring 6-part harmonies and the dazzling play of one of America's greatest guitar bands. You've hitched a ride from the northern Canadian border to the southern Mississippi delta, from the sun-drenched western Pacific to the eastern blue Atlantic, with brief stops in Alaska, Hawaii, Europe, and Asia. "This band is different, and they're proud of it," say industry writers. They're a Pennsylvania country band that travels the world from their home north of the Mason-Dixon line. They hear, write, and perform country music differently. They call it North Country. This band has successfully flown below Nashville's radar to take their stories around the globe as America's ambassadors of Original American Country. As musicians, these players are so versatile they can write and perform in any classic style. From Country Rock to Acoustic Folk. From Carribean Island to Mountain Bluegrass. From Doo-Wop to Rock Roll. You name it, they create and play it. Theres a word for their brand of music Timeless. Have songs. Will travel. Here we go again.
