Listen and learn about heartbreak, bars good times. 15 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Alt-Country, ROCK: Americana Details: For Never Always finds Timber frontman Daniel Aaron delving deeper into his songcraft with a new batch of pensive, fiery country tunes. For Never Always was recorded almost entirely in Daniel Aaron's studio, Alysseum Recording. Written over the past year, the transparent, often gut-wrenching lyrics tell stories of various sordid affairs, one-night stands and nights on the town. Every line cuts through yet complements each arrangement. The songs show a keen sense of pop experimentation without straying too far from an intoxicated countrified rock that incorporates a filigree of violin, piano, xylophone and pedal steel. Performed with a minimalist aesthetic, these riveting barstool confessions range from the frenzied to the sedate. "Accustomed to playing a variety of settings, Timber will either crank their amps up to 11 or subtly resonate with your fragile heartstrings." "Timber plays rock and roll like your redneck cousins who just discovered Big Star." Timber is constantly writing, recording and available for year-round touring. Winner of the 2006 John Lennon Songwriting Competition in Athens, GA, prolific songwriter Daniel Aaron (guitar, voice), plays regularly with an ensemble cast of musicians including Eric Johnson (banjo, pedal steel), Adam Onstott (drums), Matt Sapp (bass) and David VanWyk (cello, accordion keys).
