

Mp3 Tom Grant - Santa Claus Is Going To Town

A very eclectic body of Christmas songs featuring Tom and Rebecca Kilgore doing a steamed-up version of "Baby It's Cold Outside" as well as a comic version of Leroy Anderson's classic, "Sleigh Ride." There is a beautiful version of "I'll Be Home For Christmas" and a duet with Rebecca Kilgore on the Frank Loesser classic, "Baby it's Cold Outside", and a stirring version of Silent Night featuring gospel/jazz singer, Marilyn Keller. There are some sprightly jazz trio numbers with Dave Captein on bass and Ron Steen on drums as well as some more highly produced tracks, notably an almost country-ish version of Elvis' Blue Christmas with haunting vocals by pop singing sensation, Stephanie Schneiderman. There's something here for everyone, including some solo piano work and the title track which features tap-dancing by Santa himself. A version of Leroy Anderson's Sleigh Ride is replete with goof ball humor and musical mayhem reminiscent of Spike Jones. It's a collection of material Tom has worked on over the years and should be on everyone's Christmas list
