This CD was the soundtrack for a dance production which involved a variety of styles. The styles include: country, praise/worship, hip-hop and rock. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Wendy branches out in new directions with this second release from Divine Reflections. Though inclusive of her signature poetic worship, it also introduces new styles that comprised the soundtrack for the Spring 2005 dance production of the Academy of the Arts she directs. As the Director of Divine Reflections Academy of the Arts in Wickenburg, AZ, Wendy teaches and choreographs dance, voice and songwriting in addition to writing and singing her own music. Twice a year she directs productions at the Del E. Webb Center for the Performing Arts in Wickenburg inclusive of her original compositions and the talents of her students. She writes from her personal worship experience as well as being inspired by the lives of her students. Wendy began writing music during high school when she won the American Music Association's National Songwriting Contest in the Gospel Music category, yet went on to pursue a more practical career in the business world. After the birth of her first child, she returned to her musical calling. In August 2005 she was a Semi-Finalist in the Gospel Music Association's National Song of the Year Competition for Unsigned Songwriters. She has periodically performed live on television for the PTL show, and has been a worship leader in a variety of denominations. Currently she ministers in music throughout the state of Arizona sharing her original music.
