Discover How To Influence, Persuade & Captivate Your Way To An Online Business Fortune! How to control the minds of your website visitors, and have them lining up in droves to shove their cash in your pocket Bargain Hunter Warehouse Dear Online Marketer, Wouldn't it be great to be able to control other peoples thoughts? Imagine how many of your products you could sell then. In fact, forget the products for now, how about being able to spot a scam from a mile off? Or, how would you like to be able to resist corporate marketing. While everybody else is controlled by it and follows it, you're setting the standards, the fashions and influencing opinions. It feels pretty good to be able to do that. It's a very powerful position to be in, and I'm going to show you exactly how you can get there, just by understanding what goes on in the mind of marketers. Not just online, but offline too. Sure, there's clichés out there that everyone knows. There's the whole 'secret' thing (which is way overused), but aside from that, did you know that the ads you see on TV, the ads in publications and on websites are finely crafted, with thought going into every word. Each one with a purpose, the majority of the time influencing people's actions for the sole purpose of getting them to buy something. It happens to everyone, and unless you understand this whole thing, you're being controlled by it too. An uncomfortable thought, (and I get bucket loads of hate e-mail for saying things like that) but it's easily avoided. Easily controlled and bent to your own advantage even, if you know what you're doing. Before we go any further.. Let me let you in to an example of exactly what I mean. So, here we were, Friday night, pizza, and a couple of drinks watching a DVD and just relaxing, and talking. The DVD ends and we switch back to the TV. The conversation turns to marketing, so I began trying to explain to them about the media and the methods they use to control people's actions. Most of them downright unethical, derogatory and insulting. But people still buy it (even those who assume the odd cliché such as 'secret formulas' and 'be your own boss' catchphrases and 'exploding bank account' buzz words is what marketing is about). Anyway, literally thirty seconds after we stop talking about that, an ad comes on TV. Totally insulting to any man/woman looking to buy that product. 100% legal of course, but verging on breaking ethical boundaries, almost insulting. There was a short silence, and then it came. "Wow, that looks good. I'm gonna grab some in the morning". The person who had just said he doesn't fall for marketing and would never buy a product that was advertised in a negative or unethical way, just fell for it! Again! Now I can't reveal too much more about that example, or what the ad was for now, but take it from me.. Every single ad you see, anywhere, created by serious marketers is 100% crafted, word for word. It's not just the little cliché catch phrases that have the effect on your mind. There's much more. So this is where I get to teach you my special little skill that makes me a whole load of cash, (the one that everybody assumes they understand, and fall for it 30 seconds later). Get this, I insult people, and they give me money for it. I be nice and helpful, and they give me money for it. This is what real marketing is about. Master it, and the world is your oyster (and the people in it, even those who think they're invulnerable) No matter what you sell, learn the inside knowledge, the language, thoughts and techniques behind real marketing.
