McLaurin Gary Bernard is the son of Robert Frances McLaurin born on February 20, 1965 in New Haven, CT. It was then that he was called and anointed to lead deliver God's people from the bondage of sin. As a young boy Gary was educated in the New Haven public school system. Gary was a gifted child and has gone on to higher heights. He is currently pursuing a Bachelors degree in Psychology at Liberty University Lynchburg, Virginia. He is also the Founder/CEO of PJB&R Production and Distribution Company. Apostle has a love for music/singing and on August 16, 2002 he recorded live songs of his own personal experiences. His anointed voice ministers to bring healing and deliverance to men and women. In 1984 the Lord opened the doors of evangelism, where Evangelist McLaurin walked in a prophetic anointing. His only concern was souls being saved, spiritual passion being restored, and God's glory being revealed. In 1986 Pastor McLaurin moved to Fayetteville, NC. He assisted at Deliverance Temple for 2 years. He assisted Pastor Nails at Faith Pentecostal from 1988- 1990. Here he was known for an evening worship entitled "The Hour of Power." In 1991 of October God lead Pastor McLaurin to house his people. He began right in his very own house. After a few months God moved him to a condemn building, which was located on Cashwell street. We worshipped God in this place for five months before God blessed him with the building we are now in. His spiritual journey continued with him walking in the five -fold ministry and accepting his Apostleship in 1999. He is currently the Apostle, founder, and overseer of the Shekinah Faith Temple Church in Fayetteville, NC. Apostle is the loving husband of Tawanda Elliott McLaurin and father of Gary J'Nard and Michael Bernard. DAVID SAID, O COME LET US SING UNTO THE LORD, LET US MAKE A JOYFUL
