Punk Roll Anthems. Take Social Distortion, the Ducky Boys and Hank Sr. and roll them all together and you got Big Daddy Chrome. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Rockabilly Details: Band bios are usually entirely too boring, and this one is no exception. For the time being, we'll keep it brief and to-the-point. We're a rock band. We've heard various descriptions, ranging from "rockabilly" to "cowpunk" to "utter garbage," and none of them really fit. We're a rock band, plain and simple. We believe that Hank Williams, Sr. was more punk than Sid Vicious, and that Sid Vicious was more country than any of the garbage nashville has put out in the past 20 years. We also think Man In Black by Johnny Cash should be required reading in public schools, and that children should have to watch The Decline of Western Civilization (2) instead of "To Kill A Mockingbird" for the hundred-gadzookieth time. Above all, we like to play fast, play hard, and get the hell off stage.
