The first, and long-awaited full length release from this artist who has shared the stage with the likes of Venetian Snares, U-Ziq, David Kristian, Enduser, End, and many others. Sabres High explodes out of the speakers, exploring the territory between drum n bass and breakcore, with intricate beats, off-kilter bass grooves, and ill atmospherics. At times subtle, at other times roaring, always on point. This dapper young gentleman will smash his way into your heart with chopped up amens, subs, and much, much more - if you let him. Are you man or woman enough??
