Lyrical contemporary music for flute and guitar performed by one of the premiere flute and guitar duos in the world. 26 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, WORLD: Native American Details: Color, and colors, are words that are visual in nature, but so often used as descriptive devices for what we hear, whether it be the blue note, the brown sound, the Blue Danube or Purple Haze, or in more generalized terms such as instrumental colors or a colorful score. Sy Brandons Southwestern Suite captures the many colors of the history of the American southwest, from cowboy prairies to Mexican fiestas. Eugene Bozzas Trois Pieces explores the many colors of the flute and the guitar with great nuance and detail in hue and saturation. Finally, we wanted to capture the unique colors of our instruments, as the combination of wood flute and guitar enables us to create new colors together. Duozone, Chuck and Theresa Hulihan, first joined forces in 1996 while attending Arizona State University. They have been described as understated yet virtuosic, their concerts hailed truly an evening of Bravos and their programming called a global trek of sound. They have performed around the U.S., with appearances at the Seattle Guitar Society, American Mandolin and Guitar Summer School in Rhode Island, Guitar Workshop in New Mexico, Pepperdine University in California, and in Arizona at the Grand Canyon Guitar Society, Kerr Cultural Center, Scottsdale Center for the Arts, and the Chandler Center for the Arts.
