Heavily Jazz Hip-Hop Influenced, Hard Drums With A Melancholy Vibe 11 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, JAZZ: Soul-Jazz Details: I am iprofess. I hail from Southern California. My inspiration for doing music comes from the people that I have met in my life. Many of my song titles reflect that in their imagery with sound. Some songs touch a surface of myself and can only reflect a mere moment of relationships that I have encountered. The music is drawn from deep within my soul and has spanned years of relationships past. I feel comfortable in the melancholy and raw with the vibe! In a day where pop and image dominate the market. With my newest album "Delay The Daylight" I have put full faith and credit in my fans and listeners. I hope that they can look above the absence of lyrics and or a singer and become one with the music. I am genuine, passionately optimistic, soulful, but most importantly in a position to inspire. Believe in your dreams and my music will help to shape them. People are my music and we are all " i ".....That is iprofess... People who are interested in DJ Shadow Bonobo should consider this download.
