The respect and admiration of a band called Lil Bastad, whose new CD, Sumpthin Ta Say, really shows how these artists have influenced and inspired them. In addition Lil Bastads new CD, Sumpthin Ta Say, contains 6 BRAND NEW SONGS written by Mark Bowers. If you know Mark Bowers as the guitarist's guitarist, then be prepared to be just as blown away by Mark Bowers the songwriter. Thinking on many levels, Mark Bowers writing expresses lifes complexities in a language that everyone can easily understand: The Blues; while Lil Bastad's interpretation and innate execution of these songs shows that there is nothing Lil Bastad cannot handle. ABOUT THE BAND Lil' Bastad - The tongue in cheek name is synonymous with the winning humor and unique style that instantly connects their music with their audiences. This five piece blues based band formed in 1999 through their musicianship and great love for the Blues, R&B and Funk. Lil' Bastad combines formal "old school" style and their own contemporary feel to form a winning musical balance. Ever since Lil' Bastad's beginnings ("Hoot'n Holler'n") they've held true to their funky rhythm blues roots; recently, they've expanded to embrace full-horn section and chicago blues material. Without a doubt the driving creativity of Mark Bowers (Lead Guitar Vox), as a live performer and studio innovator, is reflected throughout the band ... The other members include: John Palmer (Keys), Ronald "Boz" Bostick (Bass), Luke Michura (Rhythm Guitar Vox), Dave Moore (Drums), who lock in syncopated blues compositions that orchestrate a fresh and innovative perpective of listening to Blues, Funk, and R B. If you're ever in the mood for an amazing live show, see Lil' Bastad, and experience the rapport the band has with its audience; that's what makes you come back for more ... from Freddy B.B. King to Jimi Hendrix ... to Robert Cray, Stevie Ray, and George Benson ... their musical influences are "uniquely styled" and this band has "Sumpthin' to Say" !!!
