A rich collection of acoustic-guitar-based songs marked by sullen-flavored melodies, coupled with highly personal lyrics and an earnest delivery. A vocal style that is both confident and vulnerable with a drop of whimsy mixed in for good measure. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Folky Pop Details: BIO: Born and raised in Rochester, NY, Liz Foster was passionate about music even as a young girl. Influenced by artists like Joan Baez, Cat Stevens, and Joni Mitchell, she was drawn to the idea that one could tell stories with words and music, and wrote her first original song when she was eleven. At age eighteen, Liz moved to Los Angeles to live with her father, veteran actor Robert Forster, and was soon involved in the local music scene. In the fall of 2001, Liz released "Indecision," a self-produced, debut album marked by fiery passion, true love, nostalgia, uncertainty and anguish. Her long-time love affair with poetry has greatly influenced her songwriting and surfaces throughout the record in songs about family, friends and lovers. "Liz Foster is a captivating folk artist. She weaves melody and story together with the grace and soul of a poet..." "Liz Fosters' voice has the earthy qualities of Emmy Lou Harris...one listen and you will find yourself traveling through each song as if they could somehow be your own intimate story." "Poetry meets storytelling." -Ronna Jones - Singer/songwriter

Words alone are truly divine
But joined with music, tingles my spine
It steals the very breath I make
And passions borne begin to wake
Inspiration takes the lead
Finding soil, planting seeds
Then sunshine pulls at the thick
Not too soon, not too quick
Softly, slowly as it grows
Here and there a song unfolds
Words and music intertwined
What better treasure is there to find?
