A heartfelt collection of modern and traditional country ballads that will leave you feeling pride, joy, and sorrow in turns. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Rich Owen is a former United States Air Force officer. He resides just outside of Colorado Springs, Colorado, along with his wife and four children. He has been singing all of his life: at home, in choirs, and in front of any audience that would listen. His earliest exposure to country music was through his mother; she was an avid fan of Glen Campbell, and played his music often. Other musical influences include the Eagles, Elvis Presley, Garth Brooks, Kenny Chesney, George Strait, Brad Paisley, and Phil Vassar (to name just a few). A mere two years ago (2006), he picked up a guitar for the first time and began to teach himself to play. A mere few months later, he wrote his first song, I Aint Ready for Forever (to End), a love song for his wife of 25 years. The songs continued to flow from there, as Rich drew upon a lifetime of experiences and emotions. His music truly comes straight from the heart. He has a unique way of drawing the listener into the stories he tells through his songs, and making them truly feel the emotions that play out in the music and lyrics. Home, God, and Country is Rich Owens debut album. To know who he is and what he cares about, you need only listen to the eleven songs that make up this moving and entertaining collection. People who are interested in George Strait Garth Brooks Kenny Chesney should consider this download.
