Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Ballads, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: This Florida composer and lyricist wrote all the songs, then commissioned the states leading young vocal, instrumental and arranging talent to present them. Among the great singers are award-winning and hit-making Pamala Stanley. The ever-surprising songs and intriguing productions make for a C.D. which listeners return to again and again. Sally Charles found fame early, as one of the outstanding high school modern dancers in the nation. She even got a Hollywood film contract offer which her St. Louis business executive father promptly tore up. Majoring in dance at the University of Illinois, Sally surprised everyone by becoming a farmers wife, a life for which she was totally unprepared. But I became the best farmers wife who ever was a farmers wife, she said. As Sally Brown she began a dance school in Rockford, Illinois, which drew top international talent for its faculty. She ended up choreographing Rockford figure skating star Janet Lynns Olympic-winning programs, introducing a new classical dance element into the sport which continues today. Composing became a later interest and to it Sally has brought all her musical, dancing and life experiences with bountiful results. The honest, heartfelt, deeply-etched and ever-surprising songs on Keeper of Dreams will keep any listeners heart glad.
