A serious songwriter's debut: Soulful, spiritual pop/rock bordering on the blues with deeply engaging lyrics influenced by Etta James, Jason Mraz, Christina Aguilera, and Bob Dylan. 6 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Folk Rock Show all album songs: Give Me A Sign Songs Details: Sam Plotkin is a 15 year-old from Somers, Connecticut with a soulful passion for singing, songwriting, and performing. He has been a featured soloist with the Dan Kane Singers, Western Massachusetts most popular choral singing group, since the age of 8, and has performed in several venues including the Mass Mutual Center, Six Flags New England, Springfield Symphony Hall, City Stage, the Majestic Theater, the Iron Horse Caf, Theodores, and the Big E (Eastern States Exposition). At age 12, Sam recorded his first CD entitled "Stepping Out" and sold out his CD Release concerts. "Give Me a Sign" is a debut collection of selected original songs that Sam has written recently and recorded in Nashville with producer Cliff Downs, backed by an all-star band. Sams true talent as a singer and songwriter shines through in this preview of his songs. Sam is a popular entertainer with a powerful presence for audiences of all ages. The review by music writer Clifton J. Noble after a sell-out performance by the Dan Kane Singers to an audience of over 4000 underscores Sams ability to captivate his listeners: The vocal highlight of the evening, the electrifying moment that raised instant goose bumps, was young Sam Plotkins account of "From a Distance".He delivered Golds profound lyrics with utterly pure, unmannered vocal tone and a visible, sincere connection to their meaning in his eyesWith the right training and the right breaks, Plotkin could be following in the footsteps of Josh Groban in a few years. (The Republican, December, 2005) "Sam is not good, not decent, but exceptional beyond his years...He has a very old musical soul in a very young person's body...I think that's just a gift from God." (-Dan Kane, The Hartford Courant, October 2005)
