New World: Celtic. Welcome to the Castle, where the harper's enchantment moves you to laughter, tears, or sleep. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Welcome to the Castle, where you hear of a tragedy arising from sibling rivalry, experience the regret of the Lord of the Manor, are soothed by the tunes of your childhood, and remember lost loves. In the spirit of the most famous traveling harper of all time, Turlough O'Carolan, may the harpers enchantment move you to laughter, tears, or sleep. Sea Raven, D.Min., harper, singer, earth liturgist, presents poetry and song in the Celtic tradition, including historic and modern tunes and ballads. Sea Raven, D.Min., is a life-long musician, plays drum, guitar, harp, and piano, and is trained as a classical singer. She offers innovative leadership for service music, and earth-based liturgies for those who wish to honor the integrity of creation in regular worship services throughout the Christian liturgical year. To explore the art of congregational singing, Sea Raven uses the full range of possibility contained in the new editions of hymnals (especially the United Church of Christs New Century Hymnal), innovative approaches to the Psalms (using the New Century Psalter), and the traditions of Taiz and the Iona Community. Sea Ravens doctoral project, A Worship Book for Creation Spirituality, offers earth liturgies based upon what is known about pre-Christian Celtic spirituality, post-modern cosmology, and the theology and four-path principles of Creation Spirituality as developed by Dr. Matthew Fox. Sea Raven is also available for weddings and other life celebrations.
