Paul McCartney dipping his toes in a Robin Zander designed swimming pool at Bryan Adams' house. Bassist Todd Jensen is best known for his world wide tours with David Lee Roth, Steve Perry and Alice Cooper; Greg Georgeson now plays with Tommy Tutone. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: 80's Rock Details: Portland, Oregon based Sequel had many regional radio hits in the early to mid '80's and toured with bands such as Journey, Sammy Hagar, Bryan Adams, The Tubes, Triumph, Aldo Nova, Icehouse and Greg Kihn, to name a few. Bass player Todd Jensen, after leaving Sequel, hooked up with Deen Castronovo to form Hardline (featuring Neal Schon), then toured with former Van Halen front man David Lee Roth, and later traveled the world playing with Steve Perry of Journey, and also, Alice Cooper. Guitarist Greg Georgeson currently plays with Tommy Tutone's traveling band. This newly released CD version of Sequels' best selling album contains all of the vinyls' excitement and includes the KGON Radio Homegrown Album winner "Shame On You"! Tracks that garnered airplay in addition to Shame On You include: A Fool For You, Too Far and Just A Summer Romance. Although Sequel disbanded in 1985, they continue to play sold out "re-union" shows on a fairly frequent basis. Their follow-up album entitled "Daylight Fright" is now available.
