Jazz music for the New Millennium 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Big Band, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Born and raised in Glens Falls City, Upstate New York Graduate of Julliard School of Music with B.S. and M.S. degrees Winner of the BMI Student Composer's Award Recipient of two Guggenheim Fellowships for Musical Compositions in 1953 and 1954 Commissioned by and composed, conducted and performed with the following orchestras: New York Philharmonic- Leonard Bernstein Buffalo Symphony Kansas City Symphony Robert Joffrey Ballet Company Santa Clara Symphony Julliard School of Music and Arts London Philharmonic Salt Lake Symphony TEO MACERO is an amazing man of music. Composer, arranger, player and producer, he has worked intimately with some of the greatest figures in the history of jazz-- Duke Ellington, Miles Davis, Charles Mingus and Thelonius Monk-- in the creation of some of their most enduring works. To have Macero at the helm of his own label, with what that implies in terms of creative freedom, is indeed something to look forward to. - Dan Morgenstern
