YOU GET MIAMI'S TERCERA VIZION! The first urban latino chapter in Tercera Vizion's Dancehall and Hip Hop saga is their debut album titled "Ritmos Eternos". Fusing layers of sounds into hypnotic dancefloor classics. Ritmos Eternos combines Hip Hop Dancehall on another level of Urban American Latino style. Lyrically the songs navigate romantic urban culture in a new original innovative formula. A formula defined by the group's double duo artist/producers El Faraon (Dominican American) and Andrie Iglesias (Colombian American). Tercera Vizion has received recognition and honorable mentions from Billboard, VH1 Song of the Year, Unisong, Global Rhythm Magazine's (Reggae Legends edition), and they were the Grand Prize Winners in the latin category of the John Lennon International Songwriting Contest 2004. Tercera Vizion was invited to participate in the John Lennon Educational Tour Bus on February 27, 2005. Where they were asked to create a song, on the spot in just a few hours, with children, teenagers, and their parents who won the opportunity to participate by a way of a JLSC raffle in the Apple Store of the Falls, Miami, Florida, USA. The entire event was to be recorded by the JLSC staff and some of the teenagers. Surprised, but up for the challenge Tercera Vizion came up with the title "One World Now". EveryONE participated in creating the song in the studio on the bus. El Faraon created the Beat, the chorus, and his bilingual verse, as Andrie Iglesias played the guitar and created his verse. The teenagers had fun playing the keys, guitar and even singing on the song in Portuguese. Everyone united to chant the chorus. "One World Now" Check it out: Watch Bus Video Now People from all races and countries have embraced their new formula for shaking hips and enchanting hearts. Climbing top myspace charts in the latin, reggae, and hip hop genres, on the local, national, and worldwide levels. This urban latino prototype is already a smash hit with latin, hip hop, and dancehall music fans worldwide. They have created a historic romantic club classic debut that has cemented Tercera Vizion's creative position in the global urban latino revolution.
