Groovy, off-kilter pop tunes punctuated with occasional instrumental tracks. Lo-fi lounge-tronica inspired by foreign film directors, sunny 60's pop, 70's porn music, and the great musical couples of yesteryear. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (36:44) ! Related styles: POP: California Pop, ELECTRONIC: Lounge People who are interested in Pizzicato Five Astrud Gilberto Nico should consider this download. Details: THE LIMES -- LIMETIME Jeff Sparks and Assia Mortensen, aka The Limes, draw inspiration from a variety of sources: Foreign cinema (Almodovar Film,) 70s porn music (In You, Strolling,) and sunny 60s style pop (Feel Right, Satellite Samba.) Limetime, The Limes first full-length album, introduces listeners to a New Lounge genre of pop. Mortensen supplied the bulk of the lyrics while Sparks saw to the musical arrangements, in a writing partnership reminiscent of Exene Cervenka and John Doe from the L.A. band X. Musically, the Limes have been compared to early Pizzicato Five, Nico, Wings (whos song Blackbird receives a cover treatment,) and Joao and Astrud Gilberto. The albums instrumental tracks vary in length and mood, providing a kind of cohesion to what would otherwise be a wildly eclectic collection of songs. The result is a party record, a lovers' record, a headphones record-virtually anytime is the right time for Limetime.
