Mooseltoe Songs Details: About This CD: This is the fourth Uncle Brothers CD, but their first holiday/Christmas CD. They have managed to capture the energy and charm of their live performances with this mix of original and traditional Christmas music. With the heart-warming "Thanksgiving Song", the silly "Santa's Diet", and the original renditions of "Christmas in Killarney", "Feliz Navidad", and "Rudolph", "MOOSELTAE" will quickly become a holiday favorite for the entire family for years to come! Bio's Danny Quinn has toured with Irish legend Tommy Makem (The Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem) and has shared the stage with other renowned artists such as , John Prine, The Wolftones, The Clancy Brothers, Tom Chapin, David Bromberg, Peter Yarrow, Cherish The Ladies, David Mallet, and many others and has been featured on "CBS The Morning Show" and "The Joe Franklin Show" as well as dozens of radio programs. Danny began performing children's music when his daughters were young and released two CDs, "The Music Bus" (for young children) and "Don't Miss The Boat", which he co-wrote four tracks with Tom Gardner. Those songs were so successful with the audiences that they decided to develop a new duo for families and children and The Uncle Brothers were born. Some of Danny's influences are TOMMY MAKEM, STAN ROGERS, DAVE MALLETT, and JOHN DENVER Visit Danny's website at dannyquinn.com Tom Gardner joined Danny to form The Uncle Brothers in 1998 after co-writing several tracks on Danny's "Don't Miss The Boat" CD for children. He has been a singer-song writer for many years but really found his niche after The Uncle Brothers were born, writing dozens of songs both with Danny and solo. Tom began singing and writing children's music when his own kids (he has three) were in elementary school. This led to many great song ideas and to the beginning of his classroom workshops for creative song and lyric writing. His song, "Rainbow" (Two Big Kids) won the KidSing 2001 songwriting contest (grand prize) and his other songs ("I Can", "When We're Happy We Laugh") won honorable mention in the 2002 John Lennon Songwriting contest. Tom also performs for younger children (preschool to about 7 years old) solo and is known as 'TOMMY'. His solo CD "My Candy Tree" was released on Blackwater Records in 2003 and won the 2004 Parents Choice Award, Recommended. This holds a special place in his heart because Tom wrote the title track with his son, Jesse (7 at the time), and the majority of the ideas in the song were his son's. Congratulations Jesse! His influences are CAT STEVENS, JIMMY BUFFETT, and BILLY JOEL. Tom has appeared on WFUD, WRRCR, WLIR, Rockland World Radio, and several local TV appearances. BUY CDs NOW at CDBa
