This year, Blondesong presents 10 all new original holiday songs written for her first Christmas album titled Christmastime Is Here ! She portrays a wide array of emotions from blissful to melancholy moods. The holiday music and lyrics invokes feelings both of happiness and sometimes sorrow within each song. Subjects of most songs are based on the many joys of the season including Christmastime, Christmas trees, Snow, Santa, Angels, Love and some tell a story or describe an emotion often shared by others, as well. The artist has a very rich and clear, unique voice and uses her own vocal harmony for a deeper effect. Variety in the musical composition ranges from soft acoustic guitars, piano and strings sounds to upbeat, fun and lively, slightly heavier guitars and drumsand are great to sing along to. Generally the style is considered to be Pop or Light Rock with an alternative feel, although the track Country Christmas has a country beat in its rhythm. She is comparable to artists such as Jewel, Karen Carpenter, Patsy Cline, Sixpence None The Richer, The Cranberries, Kelly Clarkson, The Go-Gos or Cass Elliot. The artist has loved singing since she was a child with her family, who are also musically inclined. She began singing publicly in college after entering a singing contest on campus, which led to occasional performances at local clubs in the area. The experience was a good foundation to pursue further success in music. Since that time, she has given live performances many times for cultural and community functions in Fort Worth, Texas including the Fort Worth Ladies Club and Bobby Bragan

Youth Foundation Gala scholarship events. In addition, she has appeared on the Joyful Praise television show for 5 episodes which still air at present. Her most recent activity was for the Fort Worth Cats Minor League baseball team in their variety show called the Feline Follies, in which she was responsible for two solo acts including song and dance. They have decided to make it an annual event for which she will return. She has also performed multiple times for Johnnie Highs Country Music Revue and plans to again soon. She is most happy and proud to submit her first Christmas CD of original musical composition, lyrics and singing voice. The inspiration came from her love of the holiday season and an idea to set her many works of poetry she has written throughout the years to music and thereby create a medium for which people of every generation can enjoy. She hopes others will find beauty, humor and empathy within each song. In conclusion, she has also been a working artist for several years since graduating from college with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree and creates artwork using mediums including photography, drawing and painting. The artist also studied dance and acting from a young age, and was an extra in the movie Pure Country starring George Strait. Above all, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends and her two dogs. She loves nature, traveling and movies as well and whole-heartedly believes in the importance of a sense of humor. She plans to continue to pursue a career path in art and music for years to come.
