Pure Scandinavian sound blended with creative modern electric interactive laptop music 7 MP3 Songs
JAZZ: Free Jazz, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: The musicians, Thomas Gustafson saxophones, the guitar artist Gran Klinghagen and the world drummer Anders Kjellberg, examine, without any hesitation, the free spaces for new ideas that exist in their music originating from the 70s. Formed as an equaling triangle, the guitar make the room sound as a sample of minimalism la Reich and the soprano by Gustafson, with few words and in someway filled with tones measuring the distances in the harmony of the guitar, that almost sounds as an aura borealis, and the engine of the group, Kjellberg, are there behind and gives it all, like glue, the full energy, groove and output which all music needs.
