A contemporary French singer-songwriter, inspired by his journeys around the world. A blend of folk-rock acoustic music and ethnic rhythms that creates a unique sound of his own. A warm voice, great melodies and powerful poetic lyrics. A must hear. 18 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Traditions, ROCK: Classic Rock

Details: This new CD by ric VINCENT (18 beautiful songs in French) includes some of his greatest hits newly interpreted and recorded with new musical arrangements like : Je suis fatigué , Under the Sun et sous les Cocotiers, "Take it Easy, Il n'y a plus de crocodiles Cocody ...", "Sur les toits de Boston" (a song written by ric on a roof of Beacon Hill), as well as Harmoniques a powerful poem against racism, Ode pour une île dedicated to Mauritius Island... These songs, a blend of folk-rock acoustic music and ethnic rhythms, deal with universal themes and are flavored by Eric's world travels. The lyrics are pure poetry. Eric has been recording, as usual, with his team of friends and great musicians : Pierre CHEREZE, Marc BEACCO, Sylvain MARC, Jean-Philippe AUDIN Patrick HUARD, Vincent HAMAMDJIAN, Tony RABESON, DEIRA, Roland ROMANELLI, Patrick BOURGOIN, the Brazilian singer Loalwa BRAZ and the Malagasy singer Jose RABESON... The drawing on the cover is by Georges MOUSTAKI and The picture was photographed by Daniel FURON. The included jewel box liner notes contain all the lyrics.
