POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Faded Blue has entered Halifax's music scene with intentions on making an impact and they have! Faded Blue is an original acoustic rock band that consists of four highly dedicated members; Tyler Lopez, lead vocals and acoustic guitar, Matthew Yorke, bass, Bryan Page percussion and Mike Gorey, lead guitar. Their first year together was focused on creating and collaborating on their own original music. Currently they have finished recording their first full length CD and have hit the music scene with their sights set high. They are a member of Music Nova Scotia and recently participated in Music Nova Scotia Week, in Liverpool, Nova Scotia. They performed at a Public Showcase, as well as the Late Night Industry Showcase, at White Point Beach Resort. They have great hopes of getting their name and sound out there to the right people and to start taking advantage of the countless opportunities Halifax and beyond has to offer musicians. The members of Faded Blue are firm believers that they have the sound, attitude, commitment, drive and the heart to succeed in becoming another big band to come out of the Halifax music scene. With their high energy, catchy and upbeat original music, tastefully mixed with a selection of cover music designed to please a little of every age category, Faded Blue makes for a very enjoyable night out for anybody. Said to be "...one of the hottest new bands of 2006" by Tim Feswick of Feswick Productions. Jonathan Crouse of CKBW mentioned that they are one of the most driven bands he has seen in quite sometime. The Blue Mountain Gate is a great introduction to Faded Blue, a rockin band that definitely has some staying power. The band has just started promoting their album and single so keep an eye out for news about Faded Blue. Website fadedblue.ca
