

Mp3 Jhelix - No Lies

A mixture of Darkwave, Electronica and Alternative. The beats are cold and hard, the vocals are deep and melodic. Every track makes a head-bob impossible to avoid. No Lies is a rhythmic walk on the dark side. 14 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ROCK: Goth Details: Everything has been done before. Or at least all of the foundations have been built. Its the combination of the existing forms and the finishing touches that set tomorrows music apart from todays, apart from yesterdays. So what do you get when you take a small town kid obsessed with heavy metal and bring him of age during the techno revolution? You get JHelix. You get a musician who loves a good dance beat, driving rhythm, and a million electronic sounds blending into one; but one who also loves strong harmonies, powerful vocals, and raw emotions. No Lies , both an LP and as his first release, JHelixs emergence onto the scene. Do you want to hear the future of popular mainstream darkwave? Its just one click away. Now read on. JHelix sounds like so many different artists that the comparisons are endless. Hes been compared to Korn, NIN, Alice in Chains, Depeche Mode, Men at Work, Gary Numan and Orgy, as far as mainstream acts are concerned. The niche acts are too numerous to list. The sound incorporates elements of trance, industrial, goth, rock, alternative, and dance music into a mix that respects the hook as much as the melody, while never losing site of the beat. The songs will have you singing along, nodding your head, and experiencing the lyrics. There are No Lies in this album. The stories are real, and the feelings are bare. But the accolades and praise go farther than mere bio babble. JHelix song The One was placed as the #3 track on the nationally distributed Buzzlighter 2: The Machines That Feed Us compilation (Shut Eye Records). Here, he has made it to the playlists of over 65 college and satellite radio stations throughout the country. This breakout debut inspired several personal phone calls from program directors trying to get a handle on this new delicacy. Becka Lucas of Culturedosewas driven to declare that: While there are several very good songs and promising bands to be heard on this CD, the most startling of all is a single man from Atlanta. JHelix, or Jeffrey D. Gatto if you want to be literal, is an artist. Through the interest garnered through this momentous release, he was given the opportunity to create a track for a developing movie not yet released. After Buzzlighter, JHelix spent his time composing his full length LP No Lies, all the while garnishing new found respect through this period posting to garageband.com. His awards on the website include top rankings in the all-time lists for best lyrics, best male vocals, best melody, and best production. Ranking in the top 10 of the genre. JHelix currently resides in Atlanta where he is pushing "No Lies", and working on his second full length LP.
