Details: Micah was born and raised in Bozeman, MT and has been working in Missoula for 3 years as a worship leader. He was raised on music. He took piano and trumpet lessons as a kid but didn't get into the guitar or singing until high school. He hasn't stopped playing, singing, or writing music since then. He loves God and loves writing songs that help people see how glorious God is. He has a Music Education degree from Montana State University and will soon graduate from the University of Montana with a Masters in Music Education. Micah's influences include primarily James Taylor, Paul Simon, and the band Downhere. One can hear in the music of "Better Than Life" shades of rootsy folk, bluegrass, and rock. It's thoughtful and introspective yet upbeat and energized. The lyrics are from the Psalms. Check out Micah's website for more information:
