The American Library Association calls The Battersby Duo, "A banquet of silliness designed to please the most refined of juvenile palates.Beautiful music that will make the whole Family smile." 12 MP3 Songs
KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: THE WASHINGTON POST. "SIGNIFICANT SILLINESS FROM THE BATTERSBY DUO." "By the Book," the new children's album by The Battersby Duo, encourages reading whistling singing, bathing, self-reliance and Elvis Presley impersonations. By goofily paying Elvis lip service, Tim and Laura provide parents with what will surely be viewed as a valuable service-a simple, folksy and most entertaining mixture of harmony ,rhythm, advice and adventure. Many good songs on this new album by the "shamelessly goofy" Battersby Duo. One, entitled, "Mr. Significant," has a live report from the 14th annual convention of silly people. The title song," By the Book," encourages children in their pursuit of literature. (a recurring theme in Battersby songs.) Add, "The Copycat Song," an interactive game song, set to a 12 bar blues, and it's plain to see why "By the Book," is not a bad buy." Winners of 3 Parents Choice Awards,and an Emmy,The Battersby Duo is considered to be one of the finest musical comedy teams for Children and Families in the USA today.They tour Nationally 250 days a year,performing in Theatres,Schools and Festivals.They have performed at The Kennedy Center,The Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center,Wolf Trap's Theatre in the Woods,and The Filene Center.The Marcus Center for the Performing Arts in Milwaukee,The Spoleto Festival in Charleston SC,The Arlington Texas Convention Center,The National Zoo,Cameron Park in Waco Texas,The White House,Sesame Street PEP and The Today Show on NBC
