The Line between Rock Pop. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, POP: with Live-band Production

Details: BIOGRAPHICAL POINTS OF INTEREST XOCH (pronounced "zoach") means "the goddess of flower and song," and she describes her music as "the line between Rock and Pop". XOCH has independently released two CD's: Her brand new 6-song EP CD "Cabaret" released December, 2004; and her full-length debut CD "The ONE" released January, 2003. The new CD "Cabaret" also features 3 singles from "The ONE" as Bonus Tracks. XOCH has her first international record deal with UK-based Now and Then Records for distribution and promotion of her independently produced debut CD "The ONE", released throughout Europe in February 2005. XOCH has had her music prominently featured on television and movies: Her song "Best I Never Had" will be featured in the forthcoming theatrical release movie, "Bam Bam Celeste", written by and starring Margaret Cho, and directed by Lorene Machado; Her song "My Desire" is featured in the Season 1 DVD release of MTV's hit reality TV series "Laguna Beach", and her song "You" is featured in the television broadcast of MTV's "Laguna Beach" Season 2; her song, "The ONE" is featured in the Lifetime Television Network Original Movie, "Sex and the Single Mom"; and her music has also been featured in a national television commercial for a major automobile company. XOCH and her music have been featured on four different Compilation CD's: Summer 2005 brings the release of 20,000 copies of a compilation CD produced by Warren Miller Entertainment and sponsored by Chrysler-Jeep for nationwide distribution at all outdoor Jeep promotional events, featuring both her song "My Desire", and her song "Johanna's Caf"; "Fireworks Sampler Volume 6", released only in Europe and featuring her song "The ONE"; "The Addiction V.2" released by AlternativeAddiction and Abray Records featuring her song "The ONE"; and "Do You Hear What I Hear, Too?", a Holiday Compilation CD released by Mojo Music Studios featuring an alternate Christmas Version of her song "The Fool's Dream".

XOCH was voted one of the 10 Best Unsigned Bands in 2003 by AlternativeAddiction.com, and music publications and websites from all over the world have hailed her and her music as #1 favorite Individual Player, #1 favorite Alternative Rock Band, #1 Song, and #1 CD (all such press material can be viewed at xoch.com). XOCH was awarded the coveted Jim Beam Bourbon B.E.A.M. (Benefiting Emerging Artists in Music) Unsigned Artist Grant in September, 2000. XOCH has worked with several top music Producers, from rising young talent Chris Cubeta, to established music industry professionals the likes of John Regan and Neil Perry, to the legendary Eddie Kramer. XOCH is currently a college student with a 4.0 GPA, and is pursuing a Degree in the Performing Arts.
