Private investigator, Justine Damaris, had her heart shattered when Reed Burkett told her their one-night affair was a mistake. Now he's back with the news that the child his scheming high school sweetheart claimed was his--isn't. To complicate matters more, the boy is not the sweetheart's child either. Justine would like nothing better than to throw Reed out of her New Orleans office, but her father has disappeared and left her with all his debts--including the seventy-five thousand dollars he owes a loan shark. When Reed tells Justine to name her price, she sets the fee at hundred thousand dollars. To her surprise, he readily agrees. Reed would pay any price to win back Justine's heart. He knows he was wrong to let his fear of commitment stand in the way of their love. What neither of them counted on was the price of love might be their lives.
