In most cases that can be viewed as bad but in this case Begga Ooh has a rich history musically. This veteran mcee/producer has a history that is futuristic to say the least. "Renewed History" is a sonic journey into to the past by way of an immediate future. You are about to witness a side of music that few have had the opportunity to experience. This is classic material unleashed from its audio time capsule for you to consume and be amazed. Some of the tracks are brief thoughts or snippets that are so lethal that to add a second verse would be terminal to the listener. This is hiphop without borders without conformity. The awesome production is an extension of Begga Oohs arsenal of talents. Part mcee, part beat maker, this cd raises the bar in an industry filled with followers and unoriginality.
