Like a good cohiba cigar, it leaves a good taste inside; guitar jazz. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: CALVIN EDWARDS International artist, accomplished musician, songwriter, and producer has created his own sound that in itself is a task to overcome. He was born in Kings Mountain N.C. Then, at the age of six began to play the guitar. His father, a well known songwriter, vocalist, and guitarist was on the gospel scene and his mother helped to shape his career. While in High School, Mr. Edwards won, many talent shows. At 17, he joined the famous Gospel group Five Blind Boys of Alabama for many years. Then, moved to L.A. to play in his brother's band, The Jett Edwards Band. Recording two albums together, one song was recorded by Mr. George Benson. Currently, Mr. Edwards travels and performs with his band The Calvin Edwards Quartet and is a producer for jazz show in Okinawa Japan on various military installations. Mr. Edwards was producer for the performance prior to the arrival of President Clinton's speech to military personnel during his visit to Okinawa for the G-8 Summit. The 2005 NAMM SHOW in Anaheim ca. was a blast with Calvin John B. Williams two day performance where many friends and movie stars stopping by to lean an ear. Meeting the Levy family was the highlight of the show they have the best leather gear for guitars straps, gig bags, etc, contact them at leavyleathers and for the best in guitars around I now endorse Hofner guitars at musicgroup Mr. Edwards has released four CD's as a band leader..... 1.
