Details: No matter how much you think you love someone or trust someone, know this: Between you and everyone else on this planet there is a dark, infinite chasm that can never be crossed - This is where Catsplash can be found. Catsplash, an up-and-coming band from the Chicago area, is an antidote to the selfish, indulgent emotion that is love. Led by singer and guitarist John Luckhaupt, Catsplash specializes in cathartic, melody-driven rock n' roll. With Clarissa Novales on keyboards, Bill Aldridge on bass, Tim Tully on drums, and Neil Klemz on guitar, their music is a series of contradictions, sublime yet loud, hopeful yet angry; Catsplash runs the emotional gamut of the heart. Attraction. Infatuation. Surrender. Commitment. Malaise. Jealousy. Fear. Abandonment. Maybe you should binge on some ice cream.
