Details: What genre is Crossing Caldwell? Who cares! Call it what you want and keep it coming out yer' speakers. It's music for the fans of "good music". Crossing Caldwell is very excited about putting their new album in the hands of their fans. This 14 song debut album released on October 24th, 2008 is a unique blend of everything they've had in their heads for the past 10 years or so and put it together, "Crossing Caldwell" style. There is a song for everyone on this album and some of you may even find out that you were a character in one. That's what makes Crossing Caldwell such a fan friendly band. Everyone can relate to the songs because they all have a down to earth "hometown" feel. It's real life music for real life people! Following the release of the album, Crossing Caldwell hopes to spread their sound around California and anywhere else that will have them. Crossing Caldwell has a great time making music together and the biggest reward for the whole band is having people lend an ear to enjoy this great time with them. Take a listen to the tracks and let them speak for themselves. Crossing Caldwell looks forward to more great times in the future while bringing their music to the masses. They're going to do their best to help put California's Central Valley back on the honky-tonkin' map!!
